

Muhammad and Islam:

When a man asked Muhammad to explain Islam in simple words so that he should not seek any further clarification from anyone else, Muhammad concisely said: "Say, I believe in Allah (the one God) and then be straight." Embracing the Islamic faith requires following a balanced way of life without diversion to extremism in words, actions or deeds.