

Muhammad does not like difficulty:

It is narrated that whenever Muhammad had to decide on a matter or an issue where more than one option or alternative was given, he always avoided hardship and chose the least complicated one provided that it fulfilled the required goals and did not involve unlawful acts.

(Sahih Al-Bukhari, 8/160, 6786. Sahih Muslim, 7/80, 2327)